

Events of the Past Week in Society

Just think of the fun we're goin' to have.
When Fourth of July is come;
The days are the longest I ever did see, I wish I could hurry 'em some.

We're goin' to have sizzers, an' enasers, An' cannon, an' candy, gum, An' sodas, torpedoes, an' things full o' stars, An' pinwheels that sizzle an' hum.

There's goin' to be music, an' races,
An' flags,
An' climb'n a greasy pole;
An' some o' the boys are goin' away,
To fish in the old swimmin' hole.

My ma says she's goin' to bake pies An' cakes,
An' doughnuts, an' chicken, brown;
Then 'vite all our uncles an' cousins An' aunts.

Who live 'way out from the town.
Hurrah for the Fourth! for the Fourth o' July!
Oh, that is the day for me!
Just think o' the fun we're goin' to have—Hurrah for the Fourth! Hooree!

MRS. H. S.
"Simple and brief was the wedding, as that of Ruth and of Boaz; softly the youth and the maiden repeated the words of betrothal, taking each other for husband and wife in the nuptial presence."—Longfellow.
Just such a wedding was that of Miss Cloyd Thomas of Bisbee and Mr. George Cobbe of Cananea, which occurred on Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Thomas, Upper Tombstone Canyon. The solemn ring service of the Episcopal church was the one used by the officiating clergyman, Rev. Harvey M. Shields. Only immediate relatives and friends were present to witness this sacred ceremony. It was the desire of the bride that everything be done with simple-ity.

Ben Jonson has beautifully spoken these words:
"Give me a look, give me a face That makes simplicity a grace."

The bride, gowned in white Persian lawn, beautifully trimmed with lace, came into the room leaning on the arm of her father. They were followed by the brides maid and best man, who were Miss Hazel and Mr.
Southard, sister and brother of the bride. As the words were spoken, "Who giveth this woman?" the father gave up his place to that of Mr. Cobbe, who stepped forward and pledged his sacred troth to "love and to cherish." At the close of the very impressive ceremony, many loving hands pressed those of the newly-made husband and wife, bidding them Godspeed in their new journey of life.

There is a vacant chair in the home-up the canyon, but beside it is placed another for the home-coming of both, which will no doubt be often. The mother of the groom is a happy in receiving the love of her daughter.
The bridal party proceeded from the parlor to the dining room, where a tasteful wedding breakfast was served.
Medeira vines, draped from ceiling to table, combined with roses, were used for decoration with pleasing effect.
Each guest was the recipient of a beautiful rose presented by the mother of the bride. The cutting of the bride's cake was the most important part of the breakfast, each guest receiving an ample slice for "Sweet Dreams."

Immediately after the breakfast, preparations were made to reach the train, where many friends were found in waiting. The carriage containing the bridal pair was decorated appropriately with old shoes, white ribbons and flowers. The party at the depot was ready with rice, which was showered freely for at least half an hour. Reports received state that friends in Naco welcomed them on their way to Cananea, where others were in waiting. Mr. and Mrs. Cobbe reached their home safely, and will welcome their friends after July 10.

Those present at the wedding and breakfast, including the bride and groom, were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Hazel, Southard, Byron, Harold, Ducey and Mr. D. Thomas and wife; Mrs.
Cobbe, Lee and Isabelle, Rev. and Mrs. Shields, Miss Emily Smith, Miss
Daily, Miss Williams, Messrs. Lally, Ruff, Colvin.
The wedding presents were as follows: Hand-painted cup and saucer and brass tea urn, Mrs. W. H. Merchant, cousin of the bride, living in Carlsbad, N. M.; silver goldlined bon-bon dish, Miss Emily Smith; two $10 gold pieces from Southard, Thomas and Herbert Colvin; tea set, Jean Dal-ly; silver tea set, Mr. Lally; hand-painted cake plate, Mrs. Cobbe; burnt leather sofa pillow, Mrs. Kreigbaum; silver knives and forks and clock, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas; pillow embroidered with daisies and forget-me-nots, Mr. and Mrs. McGuirk; hand-painted plates, Messrs. Williams and Beebe; walrus seal pocketbook, mounted in gold, Miss Hazel Thomas.

Mrs. W. H. Brophy is at present in California where she went to accompany Master Brophy home from school. Mr. and Mrs. Brophy expect to leave for Europe on July 13th and will be gone for three months.

Mrs. M. J. Cunningham, Mrs. Fred Sutter, Mrs. Frank and Fritz Harrington, have taken cottages for the summer at Ocean Park.

The following persons left during the week for the beaches and other points: Dr. and Mrs. Caven, Mr. and Mrs. Buxton, Mrs. J. Y. T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Hood, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan, Mrs. Barkdoll, Mrs. Curry, Miss Brown, Mrs. George Mosher, Miss Goodell, Mr. and Mrs. Cobbe.

Miss Miner and Miss Smith of El Paso are visiting for a week or more.
Miss Akard of School Hill. These young ladies were present at the "linen shower" at the home of Miss Cloyd Thomas on Monday evening.

Mrs. Parker Woodman is expected home this week from Los Angeles where she has been visiting during the winter.

The young people of the Christian church accompanied by teachers spent a pleasant day at Lewis Springs on a picnic trip recently. It is a delight to the little ones to get away for a while and see the water running naturally from the ground and gather water cress to eat with the lunches.

The Knights of the Macabees, newly organized on Friday evening were entertained very pleasantly by the Ladies of the Macabees. Coffee, sandwiches and cake were lavishly bestowed upon the Knights who enjoyed their first feast after coming into existence.

Dancing was enjoyed later with Mr.
Koch at the piano.

Miss Goodell, head nurse at the Copper Queen hospital left on Wednesday evening for the East where she will enjoy a month's rest with her parents.

Mrs. George Cobbe of the Sulphur Springs valley accompanied by her daughter, Isabelle, and son, Lee, spent the past week with friends. The occasion of their visit was the wedding of her son, George, of Cananea.

The graduating class spent a most delightful evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philbrook on Saturday evening, June 23.

The wendies around their home on School Hill has been extensively enlarged, making a most enjoyable retreat from winds and heat and a pleasant resort for evening affairs.

In the guessing game Miss Studley won the prize, a bon bon dish. The members of the class are Misses Studley, Newman, Wescott, Toles.

Word has been received from Mrs.
George Mosher to the effect that she is very pleasantly situated with her son, Maxwell, in a cottage in Ocean Park, 29 Ashland Ave.

The address, for the present, of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nolan will be the California Hotel, Los Angeles. They were accompanied by Mr. Nolan's father who will take a much needed change after his recent illness.

Mrs. Harry Scofield of Opera Drive accompanied by her two children departed during the week for Pasadena where they will spend the summer.

Miss Ethel Jones who has spent the year in the Tempe Normal returned recently to spend the summer with her home friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kribbill accompanied by their son, Clarence, will leave on Tuesday next for a long looked for visit with friends and relatives in the East.

The members of this family have made many friendships during their stay in Bisbee and are followed by the best wishes of a host of friends for a pleasant vacation and a safe return.
Mr. Clarence will spend three weeks beginning with July 28th at the Rock River Chataqua, held every year at Dixon, Ill., where he is pianist and accompanist during the entire season.
His absence from Bisbee will be of short duration because of the large number of pupils receiving musical instruction under his direction.

Mr. and Mrs. Bing Morse are being congratulated over the arrival of a son at their home. Mrs. and Mrs.
Hughes, grandparents, are also receiving their share of the honor.

At the invitation of Rev. and Mrs.
Shields the members of the Town and Country club spent Thursday evening in their home.

Games, charades and burning of fatigues kept the young people out of mischief for a few hours. Miss Sil-verthorn read a selection on matrimony, and Miss Patterson recited a Southern verse given by a boy in school. Mr. Quayle represented "quail on toast" very effectively by sanding on two pieces of toast. Mr. Childs assisted Mr. Kribbill in presenting to Mrs. Shields a very pretty set of Japanese teacups and saucers.

Other member contributed stories and other stunts to the pleasure and amusement of all. Ice cream, Welch's grape juice and watermelon, all disappeared in due time to the satisfaction of the host and hostess. Mr.
Williams won the prize in the watermelon contest. The guests at parting gave three cheers which were returned with as hearty a good will.

Those present were Misses Perry, Patterson, Silverthorn, Butler, Snyder, Echolz; Messrs. Kribbill, Williams, Thomas, Childs, Quayle.

Possibly the most important of the musical comedy attractions that will visit Bisbee next season is Mr. Harry Asklin's production of "The Empire," whose marvelous run of 315 performances in Chicago has broken all records in that city of musical comedy successes. The play is by Messrs.
Hough and Adams as to book and Mr.
Joseph Howard as to score. The story's plot is of strong melodramatic interest and its action transpires in Morocco, an ideal locale for the scenic artist and costumer. Concerning the music little needs to be said, for the score of hits it contains have been played and encored in every place where there is a band. The cast is one of the most competent that ever interpreted a musical comedy, and is headed by Mr. Frank Mace, the comedian who for the past several seasons has led the fun-makers in "Piff, Paff, Pouf." Mr. Julian Mitchell has selected and trained the chorus, which is a veritable garden of female beauty.

DOUGLAS NOTES

Most of us have a notion that croquet as a game is rather old fashioned and perhaps a little behind the times, yet in a recent society column there was an account of a croquet party, which proved a brilliant affair. The hint is a good one, and if carried out would indeed make a novel form of amusement. During the progress of the games a phonograph furnished the party with music, and later refreshments were served on the lawn. The account stated that everyone seemed highly pleased.

On next Monday evening the Y. M.
C. A. boys who, for two weeks, have been having a royal good time in the Huachuacas, will return to Douglas.

No doubt we will hear many thrilling tales of adventure from the little men.
The next encampment will be that of a number of the men who will go to the same camping ground some time shortly after the Fourth.

Try as we will, our thoughts must always wander back to those promises and expectations of the Fourth, now that we are on the very eve of a realization of our hopes. From time to time we have been offered no end of suggestions as to how this or that should be managed, and with all the advice there are several features which have not received their just share of emphasis. Of course, each one of us shall feel it a personal obligation to extend every courtesy to the many visitors we expect next week, and it is hoped that each one will appreciate just what this celebration means to Douglas and give everything his ardent support. It is a surprise that some of the church ladies are not making preparations for refreshment stands or booths, where needed refreshments could be had by the visitors. There is little doubt that we will have all the necessary conveniences for these visitors, but there are many of them who may grow heartless in searching for a cafe or restaurant which isn't crowded with people, and they may set it down that we haven't the accommodation they were led to expect. Whereas, if some of the ladies had a booth and sold box lunches and perhaps another for the sale of ice cream, it would mean profit for them and comfort for the buyer. Then, too, please don't forget the matter of decoration. Don't say you are too busy and you'll let Mrs.
Jones decorate for both of you, "because she has plenty of time." If it's only a flag, don't hesitate to let the people know that you have a patriotic spirit so highly cultivated that you could not be happy unless you had the nation's flag near at hand on the day which proclaims that nation's liberty.

Some one said last week that one could not find anywhere in this part of the country a town which offered such advantages for decoration because there's plenty of room for effect. The park has been fitted out with new lights and new seats to make a comfortable resting place, and if only each citizen will pose as host to these people who are coming for a good time, the conditions will be almost perfect. John Ingalls' "Opportunity" is knocking at your door; be sure you respond.

W. S. Hodges returned with his bride from Tucuman, New Mexico, this week. Mr. Hodges is one of the very estimable young men employed in the First National Bank of Douglas, and his many friends were glad to welcome him and Mrs. Hodges, who was Miss Inez B. Scott, of Campana, New Mexico.

Miss Adele Paxton left Wednesday morning for a two weeks' visit in Alamogordo and Cloudcroft. While in Alamogordo she will be the guest of Mrs. Fred Carson.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. McMullen, of the Tigre camp, were in Douglas for a few days this week. Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Mullen are old residents of Douglas and had a pleasant time greeting their friends.

On Thursday of last week Mrs.
Mark Henderson entertained a party of friends in honor of her sister, Miss Lottie Fruit, of El Paso. The evening was spent most pleasantly with games of flinch and panic. The guests were Misses Lottie Fruit, Bettie Yett, Pan-nie Yett, Idalia Westbrook, Dowry Messrs. Walter Dickason, C. L. Grubb and Rev. Mart Smith. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Most of the lodges of Douglas, in fact, all of them expect to keep open house on the Fourth in order to provide as far as possible for the comfort and enjoyment of their fellow members. This is a splendid idea, and will be a great aid to the community in charge and an expression of excellent hospitality.

Dr. T. F. Wright arrived in Douglas this afternoon, after a trip abroad which has covered a year, almost to the day. He has visited nearly every place of interest in Europe, and has in connection with sight seeing taken an advanced course in his profession. He was heartily welcomed by his many friends here, and will be the guest of honor at a dinner party given by Mrs. C. O. Ellis and Mrs.
W. M. Adamson tonight to a few intimate friends. Dr. Wright was accompanied by Dr. Harry McGee, of Paradiso, who will also be a guest at the dinner and who will remain in Douglas until after the Fourth.

Mrs. M. J. Thomas, of Cananea, daughter of Mrs. Charles Philbrick of Douglas, is here to witness the gal-eties surrounding the celebration of the Fourth.

Imagine a crowd of young folks rushing up to their hostess and announcing, "We came early because we have decided to keep better hours in connection with our social functions." Usually we are starting to our parties when we really ought to be thinking of coming home, and we're just thought best to take the reins in our own hands and remedy matters a bit.
This is surely a view which will meet with the unlimited approval of most of the mothers, and will make it possible for everyone to enjoy more of the gay times we have long known.

The St. Cecilia Guild met with Mrs.
T. J. Day this week and spent a most enjoyable afternoon, the chief feature of which was a well rendered musical program. The Misses McVey, sisters of Mrs. Day, and accomplished musicians, gave a number of vocal and
